ELIA GRIFFITH

Elia Griffith has been an experienced member of TruStone Financial's commercial lending department since 2012. With a financial career spanning nearly two decades, he is suited to guide all borrowers through the commercial lending process, specializing in national net lease real estate and aircraft financing.

Elia has experience in the auto financing business, as a personal banker, as a loan officer and as a business services manager for multiple organizations. He successfully completed both the Center for Financial Training (CFT) Commercial Lending Course and the American Society of Appraisers (ASA) Aircraft Appraisal Certification. Elia is also a member of the ICSC (International Council of Shopping Centers) and NAFA (National Aircraft Finance Association). With many years of experience and his commitment to continued learning, Elia has the combined knowledge to help borrowers of all types.

COMMERCIAL LENDING

Whether you are looking to purchase a new building or refinance an existing one, finance an aircraft, or seeking a 1031 tax exchange into a new asset, TruStone Financial and the commercial lending team are ready to assist.

The credit union has become a leader locally and nationally by financing aircraft and commercial real estate transactions. Currently, the Commercial Lending team has relationships in nearly 50 states. TruStone's reputation for quality underwriting and servicing has allowed the department to become one of the most well respected commercial lending departments in the credit union industry nationally.
