ZACH SCHROEDER

As the Commercial Lending Officer for the Minnesota market, Zach works with businesses, investors, brokers and capital markets to accomplish their commercial real estate goals. He is in charge of growing and managing TruStone's commercial portfolio in Minnesota across all property types.

Zach previously worked as a commercial real estate broker for a global real estate services company, where he specialized in acquisitions and dispositions of leased and owned properties throughout the Twin Cities. In that position, he worked closely with business owners and upper management teams to advise businesses in their commercial real estate transactions. During his time there, he also co-founded a group called Brokers in Industrial Real Estate that brings real estate professionals together monthly to discuss the market, trends and statistics.

Zach earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in business management from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

COMMERCIAL LENDING

Whether you are looking to purchase a new building or refinance an existing one, finance an aircraft, or seeking a 1031 tax exchange into a new asset, TruStone Financial and the commercial lending team are ready to assist.

The credit union has become a leader locally and nationally by financing aircraft and commercial real estate transactions. Currently, the Commercial Lending team has relationships in nearly 50 states. TruStone's reputation for quality underwriting and servicing has allowed the department to become one of the most well respected commercial lending departments in the credit union industry nationally.
